

AUTOCROSS COVER

STANDARD EXCLUSIONS

The following are excluded under the description of use clause of your Porsche Policy:

- Racing, speed or other contests, rallies, trials
- Use on any racing circuit whether an organized event or not

AUTOCROSS COVER

The Autocross Extension extends the description of use clause to include cover on the race track whilst participating in any of the following:

- Time trials
- Fun days
- Driver instruction events

Cover only applies to events controlled and/or held under the auspices of the Porsche Club of South Africa

Therefore, should you wish to be covered whilst participating in any of the above events, you will need to purchase the Autocross Extension. The following options are available:

- R150 000 cover – R5 000 premium
- R250 000 cover – R7 500 premium
- R400 000 cover – R15 000 premium

The premium is payable in advance as a “once off” premium and the premium is not refundable. Cover applies from the date you take out the cover and expires on the renewal date of your policy.

The excess applicable will be 10% of the claimed amount with a minimum of R10 000.

The cover only applies to damage caused to your Porsche and any third party liability is specifically excluded.

Please note that any form of racing is specifically excluded under the Autocross Extension.

You must have your Porsche insured with Sela Brokers to enable you to purchase Autocross cover. You cannot purchase Autocross cover on it's own.

Should you require Autocross cover, kindly contact Sela Brokers on Tel: (011) 483-4800 and speak to your Personal Lines Administrator who will assist you.
